

New York, April 4.—The New York Senate, to-day, passed a resolution expressive of regret of the veto by President Johnson.

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND, April 5, 1866. Burnside has been elected Governor with a slight opposition.

SHREVEPORT, April 1.—The Red River navigation is excellent, and the cotton boats are active in bringing down cotton.

The "Charleston Courier" chronicles the arrival there of 165 German emigrants.—They will form a settlement in Christ Church Parish.

RICHMOND, April 3, 1866.

The negro celebration to-day passed off much more quietly than was anticipated.

Rev. Mr. Hunnicutt addressed the crowd in the Capitol Square, from the Washington Monument, in his own peculiar miscegenation style.

It is expected that several of the papers of this city will resume operations on Thursday. A sufficient number of journeyman printers to run them will accede to the proposed reduction of their wages.

The new Catholic Bishop of Boston, Rev. John J. Williams, has been presented by the clergymen of his diocese with a purse containing eight thousand dollars, for an episcopal outfit.

For the past fortnight a company of about one hundred soldiers have been engaged upon the battle field of Shiloh in the work of gathering the remains of the dead into a cemetery upon the banks of the Tennessee.

BALTIMORE, April 4.—In the case of Bradley Johnson, late of the Confederate army, recently held to bail in this city, to answer an indictment for treason, the President has intervened, and ordered the abandonment of the case.

An era in brick making has dawned upon us. We now have the National Brick Machine making 30 to 40,000 bricks per day, and the bricks being made by a clay tempering machine will stand all tests of climate and weather. See advertisement elsewhere.

DESTRUCTION OF DARLINGTON VILLAGE.—We devote considerable space in this issue of our paper to an account of the late fire in Darlington village, whereby some forty buildings were destroyed.

Just as we go to press we are informed by a gentleman who has arrived from Darlington District that on Saturday night last the Northern portion of the village, which was left remaining at the late fire, was destroyed. This fire originated by accident; a young man was drawing kerosene oil, and was using a candle, when the oil took fire, and caused a general conflagration. Our informant says every business house in the place, with a number of residences, are destroyed.—Kingtree Star.

COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Cotton market to-day, has been heavy. The sales amounted to one thousand bales at 38 to 39 cents. Gold 127.

CHARLESTON, April 9.
